DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 129-136, 138-141, 145-153, 155-158, 162-168, and 172-174 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 7/6/04.

Applicant's election with traverse of the restriction in the reply filed on 7/6/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims are directed to the same classification. This is not found persuasive because although the inventions are classified the same, their search would be different.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 128 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zeinstra, US Patent 4,827,520 in view of Bartlett et al, US Patent 5,473,684. Zeinstra discloses an apparatus comprising a microphone assembly 11, signal processing circuitry, a case for housing the microphone assembly and circuitry whereby the case is mounted on the mounting side of an acoustical barrier 13 comprising an interior surface of a car. Zeinstra does disclose that the microphone 11 is a directional microphone but does not explicitly disclose at least two microphones and that the signal processing circuitry and microphones are configured to limit adverse effects in the assembly output signal. Bartlett discloses a microphone assembly having two microphones and gain element 40 to equalize the outputs of the microphones. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to use the directional microphone of Bartlett in the apparatus of Zeinstra for the purpose of ensuring that the microphones are matched, improving the sound to noise ratio of the microphone output signal, and improving the performance of the voice control circuit.
